Press Release November 23, 2020

Lennart Sparud is leaving his position as CFO in Hexatronic Group

Hexatronic Group's CFO, Lennart Sparud, has announced that he is leaving the company for a role as CFO at the privately owned investment company Profura Group.

"It's almost six years since I started to work at Hexatronic and it has been very exciting and developing years. It was not an easy decision to leave Hexatronic and all fantastic and competent colleagues, but it is time for me to embrace new challenges" says Lennart Sparud.

"The Board and I would like to thank Lennart for his six years as the CFO of Hexatronic Group. Lennart has played a valuable role during a strong growth phase and the stock exchange listing. We wish Lennart good luck in his new role" says Henrik Larsson Lyon, Hexatronic's Chief Executive Officer.

Lennart will continue his current role during the search for his successor, but for a maximum of six months.
